PRIMARY EXAMINER

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT, TERMINAL DISCLAIMER, AND REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Amend the specification as follows:

In page 2 of the preliminary amendment to the specification filed on July 22, 2000, at the first paragraph, after "1999" insert (which is now US Patent No. 6,650,776 issued on November 18, 2003) - -

Terminal Disclaimer

2. The terminal disclaimer filed on July 6, 2006 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of US Patent No. 6,650,776 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Reasons for Allowance

3. Claims 23-28 and 30-31 are allowed. The claims will be renumbered as 1-8.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant invention discloses an apparatus, method, and a computer-readable-medium for recognizing code data efficiently and accurately from image data representing two-dimensional codes. The key difference between the instant claimed invention and the closest prior art of Yang, et al is the fact that Yang, et al does not rely on the detection of a reference cell having a human-readable information associated with the two-dimensional code directly visible thereon and serving as a reference in recognizing the two-dimensional code. It is for this reason and in combination with all the other elements of the claims that claims 23-28 and 30-31 are allowable over the closest prior art of Yang, et al.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
